Dasa F30 Training 1

The course provides knowledge on how to install and start up a Dasa F30 system. The course also provides knowledge about the functions of the forwarder system and prepare the participants so that they can support and educate others.

Key Features

Software installation
Software upgrade
Hardware review
System status/Diagnostics, checking input and output signals
Forwarding - creating logging contracts
Forwarding - record forwarded volume or weight
Production
Operational follow-up
Reporting
Backup
Online Help
Settings external applications

Technical Data

4 hour course

Course participants need:
Computer.
Hardware lock with valid license
Software, Dasa F30 Desktop.
It is an advantage (but not necessary) if the course participants bring their own examples of forwarding instructions.
The Dasa F30 User Manual.
The training can be held in Swedish or English.

Related Products

Dasa F30 Desktop
Dasa F30